26TH ANNUAL ART INSPIRING HOPE GALA

SATURDAY
MARCH 14, 2020

OKIZU, the word comes from the Sioux language, and means "to unify, to come together as one."

Each summer hundreds of children are able to do just that while at Camp Okizu. They come together through laughter, play, hugs, song, tears, even more laughter, love, and the shared experience of childhood cancer in their lives. One special night each year we too are able to come together as members of the Okizu family in support of Okizu and the unconditional acceptance and support it provides.

Each dollar raised at Art Inspiring Hope goes directly to support a child's summer camp experience. Because of our minimal administrative costs, and our generous all-volunteer camp staff during the summer, the funds we raise on this special night can be earmarked solely for camp operations. It is our goal to raise enough to send campers to both Oncology and SIBS (Special and Important Brothers and Sisters) Camp.

HERE'S WHAT OKIZU PARENTS HAVE TO SAY:

"My daughter and I met wonderful people and it was very healing for us both. I felt it was ok to talk about my feelings because at Okizu people have been through similar things. I plan on returning every year I can."

"Everyone was WONDERFUL, as always! We were made to feel immediately comfortable, safe, and like we belonged."

"Camp Okizu is such a magical place. Each family has their own story and experience but there's an underlying understanding and immediate bond you feel with each other almost instantly. It feels like a home away from home where you feel safe and loved."

The mission of Okizu is to help all members of families affected by childhood cancer to heal through peer support, respite, mentoring, and recreational programs.
