OUR MISSION

Okizu provides children and families affected by childhood cancer with peer support, respite, and community through transformative camp experiences and programs, all offered free of charge.

THE OKIZU SPIRIT

Okizu offers the unique opportunity for children with cancer and their siblings to learn independence, develop self-esteem, and gain skills they never thought possible. At camp, kids are just kids, and they can feel comfortable being themselves in a safe, trusted environment. It is a place for fun, the start of lasting friendships, and the development of self-confidence.

ONCOLOGY CAMP

Children who are diagnosed with cancer often miss out on the joys of a normal childhood. Their illnesses, the time consumed by treatments, their physical limitations, and concerns about how they are perceived by their peers, keep them from enjoying activities that other kids take for granted. Yet these children, like all children, need the opportunity to grow, explore, discover who they are, and just have fun. Camp Okizu nurtures their development in a setting where there is no need for them to feel self-conscious.

SIBLINGS CAMP

Recognizing that childhood cancer affects the entire family, Okizu also provides a camp for the siblings of children with cancer. Okizu's SIBS (Special and Important Brothers and Sisters) Camp meets the often-neglected needs of healthy children when all energies are understandably focused on the sick child's treatment. One of only a few such camps in the United States, SIBS Camp allows these kids to feel valued, and gives them the opportunity to learn they are not the only ones coping with the conflicting and difficult emotions that accompany having a sibling with cancer. While at camp, the children are in a trusted environment where they can share their feelings and gain support from other campers and the staff.

FAMILY CAMP

Okizu's Family Camp is designed to give the whole family a few days of worry-free fun, play, and relaxation. It is an opportunity to "get away" with others who share common experiences. Many families consider these weekends to be the highlight of their year, when new and lasting friendships are made. Okizu also has weekends that are specifically for families who have lost a child, so that they can get the unique support that they need in order to heal.
